“Skills” Courses (max. 1 course):

Students may choose one “Skills” course as part of the Graduate Minor in Nonprofit Studies. “Skills” courses are designed to provide hands-on practice and application in a variety of areas related to public administration. In addition to a few regularly offered “Skills” classes, the Glenn College frequently offers “Special Topics Skills” classes which may be of relevance to the minor.

“Skills” courses are offered as 7-week classes that take place in either the first or second half of a given semester. Students are highly encouraged to consult with an advisor or Glenn College instructor before enrolling in a “Skills” class to count toward the minor to ensure maximum relevance to the minor.
Sample “Skills” Classes:
PUBAFRS 6505: Governmental Accounting (1)
PUBAFRS 6510: Conveying Quantitative Data in Public Affairs (1)
PUBAFRS 6515: Database Management (1)
PUBAFRS 6525: Survey Design (1)
PUBAFRS 6890: Special Topics Skills (1) [Content and Title will vary with each offering.]

If a student obtains prior permission from the Glenn College s/he may substitute a Glenn College course not listed above for an elective within the Graduate Minor if the advisor and student deem the course as appropriate to the student’s main program of study and if the student has the necessary pre-requisite coursework to enter a specific class. Additionally, any Capstone course offering at the Glenn College (numbered 79xx) may be related to Nonprofit Studies. If a Capstone course is related to a student’s minor program of study, the student may take a Capstone course as an elective toward the Graduate Minor. Prior approval is required. All Capstone courses are 3 credits.
