7:00pm Cookies and Conversation with Coordinator Chris Concerning the Careful Completion of College, Baker East Rec-Room

'Twas the night before classes and all through the hall, the students were excited – but nervous as well. Coordinator Chris will be making a special "house call" tonight to chat with you about your first day of classes, what to expect as well as tips for success. We'll even provide some delightful desserts to snack on as you learn these secret tips!

Wednesday, September 21

7:30am CLASSES BEGIN!!!

Wishing you great luck as your classes begin. If you aren't sure where a building is located or how to get there – stop by the front desk and an Office Assistant will be quick to assist you.

6:00pm *John Glenn CLC Meeting/Program, TBA

The John Glenn Civic Leadership Council is the Glenn School's stellar student organization. Did you know that you are automatically members? The CLC will be planning some great service, policy, and social events throughout the year, and they are excited to kick things off with a special welcome event.
