JOHN GLENN COLLEGE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Washington Academic Internship Program

The John Glenn College of Public Affairs provides an opportunity for Ohio State juniors and seniors to study and work in our nation's capital as John Glenn Fellows.

The Washington Academic Internship Program selects outstanding undergraduates in any field of study to spend a semester in Washington, D.C. John Glenn Fellows are placed in internships that reflect their particular areas of academic interest. They also complete a policy and public service class, attend weekly seminars, and write a policy paper.

Network
Participants in the program meet policy professionals and interact with Ohio State alumni in the region. This interaction has value far beyond the semester in which the students are enrolled in the program. Real opportunities are presented for career advice, professional development, and cross-generational exchange. Every John Glenn Fellow will be matched with an alumni mentor to provide additional support and professional advice.

Pre-requisite Requirement
Starting summer 2019, there is one pre-requisite course students must take before their WAIP semester, which can be satisfied by enrolling in Public Affairs 2110: Introduction to Public Affairs. Political Science 3115: Introduction to the Policy Process is also acceptable. Students do not have to enroll in the pre-requisite in order to apply, but they must successfully pass the requirement before their WAIP semester.

Housing
Students reside together in a Capitol Hill residence selected for its services, proximity to the Metro system, safety, and neighborhood conveniences. The program arranges for housing and applies the charges to each student's university account. The residential experience is a critical part of the students' learning experience as part of the Program. For more information about D.C. housing arrangements, visit www.internsdc.com.
