

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

JOHN GLENN COLLEGE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Education Policy

Designed for individuals that want to obtain positions within educational or community organizations. The Education Policy track is a great option if you are interested in working for the government or in nonprofit program development, educational organizations, school management or if you want to provide consulting services to government or work internationally to advance education in developing countries.

Foundational Courses (Take these courses)

PUBAFRS 3110 Education Policy in a Changing World (3 hours)

PUBAFRS 4110 Higher Education and Workforce Policy (3 hours)

Other Courses (at least 9 hours):

PUBAFRS 4040 Public Sector Data Science and Management (3 hours)

PUBAFRS 5240 Race and Public Policy in the United States (3 hours)

PUBAFRS 5250 Poverty, Inequality, and Public Policy (3 hours)

ESWDE 5624 Foundations of Workforce Development and Education (3 hours)

ESPHE 3206 School and Society (3 hours)

ESPHE 4245 Education and Spirituality: Holistic Perspectives (3 hours)

ESPHE 4280 History of Modern Education (3 hours)

PUBAFRS 4191.01/.02 Public Affairs Internship (3 hours)

SOCIOL 2320 Sociology of Education (3 hours)

SOCIOL 3306 Sociology of Poverty (3 hours)

SOCIOL 3464 Work, Employment and Society (3 hours)

-Students may petition for the use of other relevant courses toward specialization track

-Specialization tracks must have 12 unique hours. Students are permitted to overlap 1 course (3-credit hours) with the major core, or a minor.