GLENN COLLEGE LEADERSHIP FORUM

The Glenn College Leadership Forum has become Ohio’s premier conference for those working in or with the public sector. Over 200 people attend this annual one-day conference from all over the state of Ohio, and beyond, with the purpose of learning about current or emerging trends in public policy, administration and leadership.

With a blend of faculty and practitioner-led sessions, the Leadership Forum honors The Ohio State University’s land-grant mission of “education for citizenship” by offering a mix of plenaries and breakout sessions that are practical and insightful for public leaders across sectors.

Who attends?

More than 200 individuals working in the public management field.
